

NZCF Personal/ACD new membership 2018

Welcome to the New Zealand Choral Federation, that represents around 21,000 singers and conductors drawn from 550 choirs all over New Zealand. In addition, we provide resources and training for all choral conductors, inspiring and sustaining them with educational opportunities, support, mentoring and online resources. Although you are welcome to use this form, we encourage to join online.

Your membership enables the Choral Federation to:

- provide a wide range of choral events, services and educational opportunities for choirs
- train choral leaders through regular workshops and conferences
- provide experienced personnel for education in vocal and choral techniques
- provide a structure for NZ choral professionals to improve their skills and assist others
- bring national/international clinicians' expertise to regional choirs
- stimulate excellence in New Zealand choirs and other arts organisations
- create performance opportunities for New Zealand composers.

Personal membership benefits

- the opportunity to form networks with other choral singers and conductors, for support and the sharing of information and resources
- invitations to educational NZCF events, such as choral singing and conducting workshops, run by top New Zealand and international choral practitioners
- reduced ticket prices to all NZCF events and other concerts, and preferential acceptance where numbers are limited
- monthly eBreve newsletter
- educational articles on our website
- voting rights in elections and on constitutional matters.
